

Dr. Samuel Heath, Ph.D

Dr. Heath was born in Weedpatch, California. Dr. Heath has worked as a manual laborer, mechanic, machinist, peace officer, engineer, pastor, builder and developer, educator, social services practitioner (CPS) in Northern California.

Awarded American Legion Scholarship and is an award winning author. He has three surviving children: Daniel, Karen and Michael. The oldest daughter, Diana, was killed in a motorcycle accident.

Academic Degrees:

- Ph.D. U.S.I.U., San Diego, CA.
- M.A. Chapman University, Orange, CA.
- M.S.(Eqv.) U.C.L.A. Ext., Los Angeles, CA.
- B.V.E. C.S. University, Long Beach, CA.
- A.A. Cerritos College, Cerritos, CA.

Other Colleges and Universities attended:

- Santa Monica Technical College, Biola University and C.S. University, Northridge.

Life credentials in the following areas:

Psychology, Professional Education, Library Science, English, German, History, Administration (K-12), Administration, Supervision of Vocational Education and Vocational Education-Trade and Industry.

In addition to his work in public education, Dr. Heath started three private schools, K-12, two in California and one in Colorado. His teaching and administrative experience covers every grade level and graduate school.